Lodge News

Our meeting in January was the occasion of the Official Visit of the DDGM, RWBro Robert H. Clarke. As usual for a DD night, Bytown served a splendid banquet, with roast chicken as the featured dish. There was a very good turnout at the banquet, with more than 40 enjoying the plentiful and delicious food. Olive Nelson and Julie Hawkins did yeoman service setting out the food, and they also completed almost all of the washing up and cleanup as we met upstairs. Olive had also prepared several of her delicious hors d'oeuvres, and another of her famous cakes. (See photos). She confided that she had baked the cake but her Daughter did the design and decoration.

More visiting brethren joined us for the meeting in the lodge room upstairs, which followed the banquet. Seventeen members and 37 visitors filled the lodge room. Highlights of the meeting were WBro Joe Pound's talk, taken from a vintage book on Masonry, about the origins of the term Entered Apprentice. Also, your Editor was privileged to be asked to present our Secretary, WBro Scott Macdonald, with his 25 year pin.

A less happy note was the suspension of two members for non payment of dues, but we have been fortunate to have Bro Dale Bay apply to be our newest member by affiliation. Dale hails from Tokyo Lodge number 2, Grand Lodge of Japan.
